More about me | I am the first Asian wheelchair user young who successfully finished a travel titled Mohoram's Wheels from Bangladesh capital Dhaka to USA capital Washington DC over land and water only. With my own wheelchair and all by myself, I have traveled 25,728 KMS, 16 countries - Bangladesh, India, Nepal, Kazakhstan, Russia, Ukraine, Poland, Germany, Switzerland, Liechtenstein, Austria, Italy, Czech Republic, Belgium, UK and USA. More details and photos are available at www.facebook.com/TheMohoram or at www.facebook.com/groups/MohoramsWheels or at www.plus.google.com/+MdMohoramAli, and videos are available at www.youtube.com/TheMohoram. Journey was started 25th June 2011 and finished 28th February 2012. The mission of this travel was raising a voice on favour of my concept World disability Fund (WDF). I have tried to address to world people and young leaders this concept. It is a concept that aiming to create a global fund by all states head to support the non govt. organizations of all countries working for the disabled people for save the life and promote the rights of persons with disability. I grow up in a very rural area in Natore district, a northern district of the country Bangladesh. In 2002 I have been to Dhaka, capital of the country for 3 months based vocation training on computer in a center for the rehabilitation and vocational training for the disabled people (www.crp-bangladesh.org). After completion the training I have been working for the same center from July 2002 to December 2013. During my job with this organization, I have established a DPO (disabled people organization) in 11th August 2011 for promoting the rights of and vocational training for persons with disability in northern province of the country. Now I am giving full time and full of energy with my organization United Actions (www.facebook.com/unitedactionsbd). This organization is very new and I have to give a lot of labor to stand ut. This organization will work for positive change the life of persons with disability and for vocational training.
